1. Pietism and moralism teach that Jesus Christ is our good example. These religious sounding false prophets limit the work of Christ to being a straight shooter, a role model. They say we should be good because Jesus was. We should live selflessly and sacrificially just as Jesus did. What does the Bible say about this? Was Jesus only a roll model?
2. What is the significance of Christ's resurrection from the dead?
3. What is the significance of the ascension of Jesus Christ?

9th Reading: Pages 143-46

Write notes on the following:

1. Everyone wants to live forever. Even products that claim to extend physical life make the evening news. If people can't hold onto their youth, they will pay a lot of money for things that make them look younger or seem to be younger. Our youth culture says that young is good, old is bad. How does Calvin describe the way we can live forever with Christ? How do we get His benefits?
2. Describe the process of coming to Christ.
3. What is saving faith?

10th Reading: Pages 147-51

Write notes on the following:

1. Very many people admit their concern about their souls. Many are depressed or agitated because of their circumstances. Many have knowledge about God and His Word. What further thing is needed in order to cause a person to come to God in saving faith?
2. Calvin writes of a different kind of knowledge. What does he mean?
3. Unbelievers and doubters find their hope in ridiculing faith in Christ. They say that it just means that you close your own mind and believe. Even though they are doing the same thing and blindly trusting their own distorted logic and intelligence, they still, like mad men, challenge Christ. What is our answer to those who ridicule the faith of the believer?
