

Covenant Home Curriculum Transitional
BOOK REPORT FORM

To be completed in a loose-leaf notebook while reading the piece of literature. These notes will be used to write a book report on completion of the story. The note-taking should be done in five sections. The five sections correspond to the five paragraphs in the book report. The loose-leaf notebook will allow you to expand each section as you learn new information.

Section 1: Introduction

A. Title: _____

B. Author: _____

C. Setting (the time, place and circumstances of the story):

i. Place(s) (Where does the story take place?): _____

ii. Time (What years, era, season, time span, etc.): _____

iii. Circumstances (Type of community or group; related historical references; events that happen prior to the story, but affect the story; etc.): _____

